

Pass It On

Genre: Play

A group of teenage boys who had to move out of their urban neighborhood still want to play basketball there. A rival group, the Hatchets, don't like the idea. But the leaders of the two groups, Echo and Judge, realize their childhood friendship may still be strong enough to overcome this conflict.

Standing Together

Genres: Song Lyrics and Sonnet

These two poems were written in different time periods but share the same topics of friendship and loyalty. The song lyrics show the commitment of two friends. The sonnet's speaker reflects on how friendship eases sadness.
