

The Moustache

Genre: Short Story

When Mike visits his grandmother in a nursing home, she mistakes him for his grandfather because of the name they share and because of his new moustache. Mike listens helplessly as his grandmother begs her “husband’s” forgiveness for a past secret betrayal.

Who We Really Are

Genre: News Feature

Fostering Art, an organization that offers free therapy to foster youth, gives young people in the foster care system an expressive and creative outlet. Statistics and personal interviews give insight into the program’s goals and achievements.